

Bones, Muscles and Joints Crossword

6th Grade Health

ACROSS

- 5. The injury that occurs when a muscle or tendon has been overstretched.
- 7. This type of muscle attach to bones and moves the skeleton.
- 10. Bands of connective tissue that connect bone to bone.
- 11. This type of joint allows for a rotating or twisting motion. (i.e. The head moving from side to side)
- 12. Muscles that you are able to control consciously.
- 14. A bone disease that causes the bone to become brittle, thin, a
- 16. A muscle located in the lower leg/calf.
- 17. This type of muscle is found in the heart.
- 18. The major muscle found on the front side of the thigh.
- 19. A mineral that is needed to make bones hard.
- 20. Type of joint that that moves a little. (i.e. The vertebrae in the spine)
- 21. This type of muscle is found in the stomach, intestines, blood and bladder.

DOWN

- 1. Bones, muscles, and joints along with the tendons, ligaments, and cartilage make up this system.
- 2. Where most of the blood cells are made in the body.
- 3. A bone that is broken is also called this.
- 4. The inflammation of the joint.
- 6. These are narrow rope-like tissues that connect the muscles to bones.
- 8. A muscle doing most of the work is made smaller/shortened when this happens.
- 9. The major muscle of the stomach.
- 13. This type of joint moves only one way. (i.e. The knees and elbows.)
- 15. Muscles that you do not consciously control. (They work on their own without thought)

